

Privacy Policy

The Center for Early Medieval Studies respects your privacy and processes personal data in accordance with the EU regulations. Below you will find information about what personal data the Center processes and for what purposes.

The Center for Early Medieval Studies at Art History Seminar, Masaryk University, based at Arna Novaka 1, Brno 602 00, processes the personal data you have provided us by subscribing to our newsletter, by filling in an application form at one of our organized events or otherwise, in accordance with legal regulations.

Purpose, time and method of processing

The personal data you provide us (name, surname, email address) is processed to send a newsletter and information about the events the Center organizes or takes part in. This data will be processed by the Administrator for a period of five years from its provision.

The processing of personal data is done by the Administrator. Questions about personal data at the Center for Early Medieval Studies can be sent to info@earlymedievalstudies.com. At the same address, you can also request that your personal data be modified and ask for information about how we process your personal data. In such cases, we will require proof of your identity.

Canceling your consent

You give your explicit consent to the above processing. Provision of personal data is voluntary. You can cancel your consent at any time by clicking on the logout link at the end of each email you receive.

Sharing data with third parties

The Center for Early Medieval Studies will not provide your data to third parties.

Changes to the privacy policy

The information provided here is reviewed regularly.

Last revision: 8 October 2018